

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Tuesday - 3 August 1976

Page 2

STA

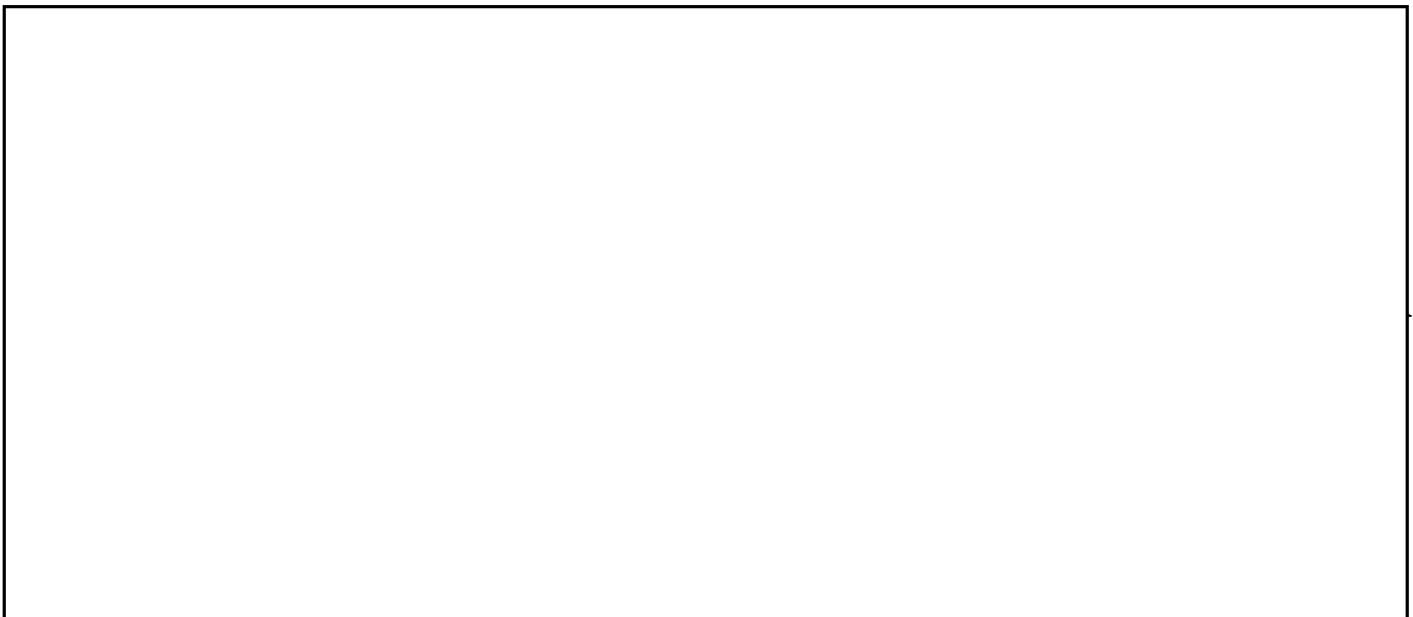

AT

6. [REDACTED] HEARINGS As requested by Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, accompanied [REDACTED] Office of Personnel; and [REDACTED] in the Office of Finance, to the House Rules Committee hearing on H.R. 13615, a bill amending CIARDS. There was no opposition to the legislation and a one hour open rule was approved. Chairman Edward Hebert (D., La.), of the Subcommittee on Investigations, and Representative Robin Beard (R., R. I.) appeared before the Committee on behalf of the legislation. During the course of the brief presentation, Representative Morgan Murphy (D., Ill.), of the Rules Committee, remarked, based upon his work with the House Select Committee, that the hard working employees of CIA deserve benefits at least in parity with other Federal employees.

STA
STA

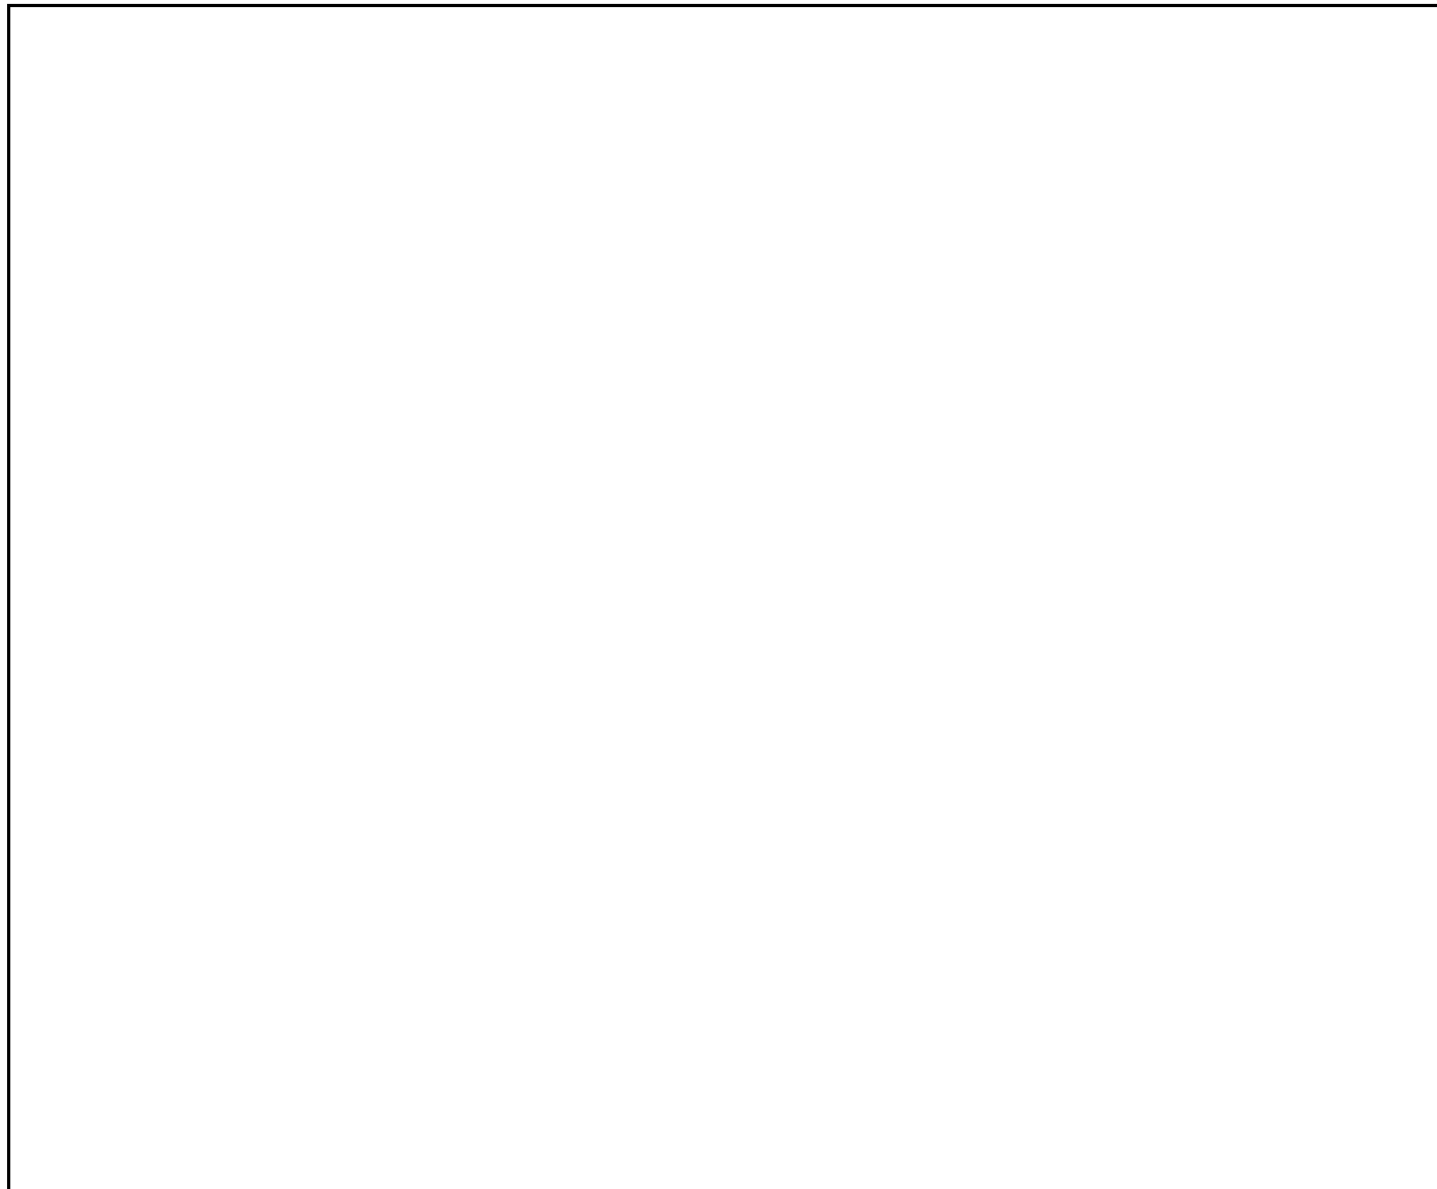

STA

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Tuesday - 3 August 1976

Page 4

STA

AT

17. [REDACTED] LIAISON Bill Hogan, House Armed Services Committee staff, called and said that he would like our people up at his office at 10:00 this morning for the 10:30 House Rules Committee meeting on the CIARDOS bill. He said he would like to talk to them and to ask them to make sure they bring the figures for the unfunded liability, even if the Committee will not be provided with those figures. [REDACTED] OF, have been notified.

STA